SEPTEMBER NEWS from SACRED HEART SCHOOL

Our School year has gotten off to a wonderful start. We have new students and faculty members. We have been welcoming each other, celebrating each other's newness and belonging. We began our school year with prayer and celebrated our first Mass together with Father Patterson. We hope this year will bring great learning and excitement to us all. We are already working very hard preparing for the Terra Nova Standardized Test next week. We have also begun our fund-raising chocolate drive.

Soon we will be ready to celebrate United Nation Day on October 24 and our Storytelling Contest on October 30. On U.N. Day the children come to school dressed in cultural garb representing a country that belongs to the U.N. Each child gives a short report about the country. Hopefully, this year we will have an even deeper appreciation for the work at the U.N. since our president will be addressing the Assembly.

The Storytelling Contest is always exciting. The Pre-K grades memorize a story as a class and present the story as a group to our assembly. Each student in grades 1-8 memorizes a story and competes in their class for a spot in the school-wide contest. Everyone is challenged to learn and enjoy literature through our fellow students' presentation.

Don't forget KNOW YOUR SCHOOL NIGHT – MONDAY – SEPTEMBER 28, 2009.
