Thanks

When you woke up this morning, did you pray?

Did you listen to God's silent request?

For those who are old enough, think back to the World War I recruitment poster of a stern and bearded man pointing his finger with the inscription "Uncle Sam Wants You". This poster was so effective, it caused quite a few brave men and women to heed the call and join the armed forces, and off they went to the wild blue yonder.

Now, imagine that posters are turning up all over your neighborhood with the inscription "Father God Wants You". Will you heed to the call and enlist to serve God?

Father God wants you to "spread the news about him all over that region". (Matthew 9:31)

Father God wants you to worship "God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in spirit and in truth." John 4:24

Father God wants you to go back to Him and say "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you". Luke 15:18

If you are ready to enlist and serve Him, than join the angels in singing - Here I am Lord - Is it I Lord? I am obediently responding to your call.

FALSE PROPHETS, TRUE PROPHETS

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice, the Holy One of God.

The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. We also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. And today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths.
