Parish Mission Statement

Sacred Heart Church, Cambria Heights is a diverse, vibrant, family united in faith. Drawing from our rich cultural backgrounds, we proclaim Christ as Lord, celebrate His living presence in the Sacraments, and serve others in his name.

Dress in Style for Mother's Day

*Abiye Kon Pan Pou
"Fête Des Mères"*

Mother's Day is on Sunday, May 13th. On that occasion, the Children Ministry is asking that we celebrate all the mothers of the parish in a very unique way: All the ladies (and girls) are to wear their best looking hats and gloves to church that day. All men (and boys) are requested to wear suspenders.

There will be picture taking of our best dressed, best hats, best gloves after every Mass outside the church. Then we will join fellowship to celebrate and honor all the mothers in our community. The men and boys will have the honor of serving the mothers.

Please join in this exciting and unique way of celebrating Mother's Day in our parish.

Dimanch 13 Me se « Fête Des Mères ». Nan okazyon sa a, Ministè Timoun vle selebre manman nan pawas la yon fason inik: Tout medam yo (ak ti fi yo) ap mete bèl chape yo, ak bèl gan yo pou vinn lamès jou sa a. Tout mesye yo (ak ti gason yo tou) yo mande yo mete suspenders (bretèl) pou yo ka byen chèlbè lè yap sèvi medam yo. Ap gen yon « photo booth » pou pran foto tout maman yo apre mès la.

Après sa, nap gen fellowship nan oditoriòm nan pou kontinye selebrasyon an. Se Mesye yo kap sèvi jou sa a. An nou tout kolabore pou fè « Fête des Mères » yon bèl jounen pou tout manman nan pawas la.

POPE FRANCIS RECALLS HIS 1ST COMMUNION, SAYS TO REMEMBER CATECHISTS

On a visit to a Roman parish Sunday evening, the Pope had lively discussions with various groups from the congregation, including children preparing to receive their First Communion. He told them about his own First Communion 70 years ago.

On his arrival at the parish of Saint Joseph all'Aurelio, in the western sector of the Diocese of Rome, the Pope met with little children, the sick and families with children baptized in the course of the year. The Holy Father then heard the confessions of some penitents. Finally, he presided over Mass for Gaudete Sunday.

In greeting the children, he said, "There are those of you here who are going to make their First Communion. Do you know? This year was the 70th anniversary of my First Communion: 70 years ago I made my First Communion. A long time ago, no? I made it on Oct. 8, 1944."

He said he remembered the occasion "as if it were today."

"I was prepared, for a year, by a very good Sister, who was called Dolores. [...] And also the catechists, both were called Alice. They taught us. Then the day arrived. [...] And we all entered the church with our hands stuck together, like this ... and we sang, a song that perhaps you know: 'O holy altar, guarded by the Angels, I come to you for the first time.' [...] But I shall never forget that day."

Noting that later in the day he received Confirmation, the Pope invited them, "You, who will make your First Communion, always remember that day your whole life: the first day that Jesus came in to us. He comes, makes himself one with us, makes himself our food, our nourishment to give us strength."

Adding that they should also remember the catechists, the Pontiff said that when the Sister who prepared him for Communion died on Oct. 17, 1987, "I went there and was there with her corpse and I prayed so much, because that Sister brought me close to Jesus. Don't forget the catechists, all right? Don't forget the date, ok? And every year, on the date, go make a good Confession and Communion: all right?"

"I pray for you. May you have joy, joy with these children, joy in the home, joy in hope, so much joy. And I give you my blessing," he said.

"To take First Communion means to enter into communion with others"

– Pope Francis
