FR. HILAIRE'S REMARKS ON THE YOUTH CONCERT

Last Saturday, our Youth Ministry put together an amazing concert entitled "Expect the Great". Their energy, delivery and praise surpassed our expectations in so many levels. I am thankful and pleased to have been there to share the night with all of you praising the Lord with our gifts of time and talents.

A parish that is filled with young people who love the Lord, their church and each other is a parish that is alive, and at Sacred Heart we are well and alive in God.

I want to take a moment to acknowledge Richard, Vanessa, Cassandra, Elisha, Nikeisha, Yulette, Shainah, Kathy, Pierry, Dominique, Pedro, Denise, Fr. Franklin (I'm almost sure I'm missing a name or two) for stepping up and leading their peers in this journey of being a young Catholic in today's world. I admire how faithful, caring, and bold you all are. You are among some of the most amazing young people I've ever met. I challenge you, at the same time, to pour all that energy and youthfulness in every aspect of your life, and in particular in the life of the parish. I thank you, parents, for entrusting this parish with your children. I pray that God will continue to bless us and our gifts of time, talents and treasure to His greatest glory! And from you, Sacred Heart Youth, the church expects the Great.
